BY-LAWS.

ARTICLE I.

This organization shall be known as the Woman's Reading Club of Fort Wayne.

ARTICLE II.

Its object is the study of History, Literature and Art, also the general intellectual and social culture of its members.

ARTICLE III.—Officers.

Section 1. There shall be a Program Committee of three members, elected by ballot, at the first meeting in March, the subject for the following year having been selected by the club at a previous meeting. The chairman of the Program Committee shall be elected first and shall be the presiding officer of the club. The committee shall elect the Secretary and Treasurer from their number.

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of the Program Committee to prepare and have printed a program before the first meeting of the following year.

Sec. 3. At the first meeting in May the drawing of the readings for the ensuing year shall be made. The Program Committee shall announce the subjects of the three meetings to the readers thereof at least four weeks before the program begins. After this drawing each member is entirely responsible for her own reading. If for any reason a member cannot read in her turn, she must provide a substitute. Any member failing to do this without giving an acceptable excuse to the Program Committee shall forfeit her membership.

ARTICLE IV.—Meetings.

Sec. 1. The club year shall begin the middle of October and end the middle of May, the meetings to be held fortnightly at half-past two o'clock.

Sec. 2. A place for each meeting shall be announced at the previous meeting. If, for any reason, a hostess shall change the time of place of meeting, she shall notify each member of such change.

ARTICLE V.—Membership.

Sec. 1. The number of members shall be limited to thirty-two active members. When vacancies occur, all names of candidates for membership shall be presented to the Program Committee in writing. A list of these candidates for membership shall be announced one week before they are to be voted upon. From the list thus presented each member shall be entitled to a vote for a candidate, and a majority of the votes of the members of the club shall be necessary for her election. If there is no election on the first ballot, the succeeding ballots shall be confined to the three candidates having the highest number of votes, until there is an election.

Sec. 2. A member who is absent from three consecutive meetings, without sending an excuse in writing to the Program Committee before the date of the fourth meeting, will be considered as desiring to withdraw from the club, and her name will be dropped from the list, the Secretary notifying such member to that effect.

SEC. 3. Any member may bring a friend, not a resident of the city, to any regular meeting.

ARTICLE VI.

All necessary expenses shall be divided equally among the members of the club. There shall be an annual fee of one dollar for each member, payable at the first regular business meeting of the club.

ARTICLE VII.

Seventeen members must be present for the transaction of business.

ARTICLE VIII.

These By-Laws may be amended at any regular meeting of the club, by a two-thirds vote of the members present, provided that a written notice of the intended change has been given at a previous meeting.
